January 1951

The Legend

*Weequahic High School
Newark, New Jersey
January, 1951*

Foreword

This is a book of memories—the memories of the Class of January

1951. Our group has shared many innovations, many trials and tribulations, and many wonderful times in our four years together.

Into this Legend have been placed pictures and words in the hope that years from now when you open this book you will be able to relive the days you spent at Weequahic High.

Harold LaPenna

Dedication

When the subject was presented—to whom shall our yearbook be dedicated?—the response was unanimous. We didn't have to search for a person; we knew whom we wanted. A yearbook is the result of four years of sincere friendship; a book of friends. With his gentleness and soothing determination, our grade adviser has proved to be our very best friend.

He first became associated with us when we were sophomores; and he has been a source of inspiration ever since. He has always been unselfishly willing to give of his valuable time to any member of the class who was in need of advice.

He has been tactful and kind and we are all thankful that we were fortunate enough to have such a man direct us and solve our many problems.

It is our honor and privilege to dedicate our Legend to you—Mr. Harold LaPenna.

*"He was a scholar, and a ripe and good one;
Exceeding wise, fair-
spoken, and persuading."*

SHAKESPEARE

Max J. Herzberg

Principal's Message

A Message to the Class of January 1951:

If you were asked which sort of world you'd rather live in—one where everything goes on in the same way forever, or one where almost anything can happen at any time and nothing is ever certain, you'd probably decide in favor of the latter. Fortunately or unfortunately, you have no choice. Never was the world so unsure, so dangerous, so confused. We have automobiles, TV sets, and other contraptions, but we can expect as Matthew Arnold phrased it. If you like excitement, the chance to grow up fast, and the responsibility for settling mankind's future, you'll get all these in the next few years—and I hope and expect you won't mind. Good luck to you all!

"Nor certitude, nor peace, nor help for pain,"

MAX J. HERZBERG

Constance D. Bowerman

and one that is your friend."*

In Memoriam

We remember at graduation time two young people who were at one time members of the Class of January 1951.

Barbara Reback died on April 24, 1949, after a long illness, at the age of seventeen. She walked with gentle quietude among us.

BARBARA REBACK

April 1, 1932 — April 24, 1949

*"They are safe and shall not fade,
After everything is done,
Past the solace of the shade
Or the rescue of the sun."*

LONG

Gerald Feinstein left Weequahic in June 1949 to join the Marines. He was the first Weequahic boy to be killed in Korea. Gerald's unobtrusive dignity is in our memories of him.

GERALD FEINSTEIN

June 7, 1932 — September 21, 1950

The Chronology

FEBRUARY 1947

In February 1947 we entered the frightening world of higher education. The Annex and Madison welcomed us with opened arms. Even at this embryonic stage, the Class of January, 1951 showed signs of being completely independent. The Annex students made their mark by being the first class in Weequahic history to have three principals, Mr. Coleman, Mr. Landolphi, and Mr. Ackerman; and two advisers, Mr. Holzman and Mrs. Block. The Madison Frosh had an unprecedented tea in addition to the graduation exercises.

FEBRUARY 1948

As 2B's, we were the first students to enter the newly painted main building under the core curriculum. Our adviser, Mrs. Litzky, helped us to acclimate ourselves to our new surroundings. Mr. LaPenna joined us in 2A and has managed to stay with us for the remainder of our sojourn in Weequahic. During this semester a very important event occurred: Weequahic defeated South Side in football.

FEBRUARY 1949

The big attraction of our 3B term was the privilege of voting in class elections. Our choices were Fred Sarbone, President; Jerry Sokol, Vice President; Roz Klinger, Secretary; and Harriet Alper, Treasurer. With the best intentions we planned a class picnic, but unfortunately our first noble endeavor fizzled. Our 3A officers were Jerry Sokol, Sonia Kotler, Roz Klinger, and Harriet Alper.

FEBRUARY 1950

In 4B we really made our mark in Weequahic. Led by Sokol, Ginsberg, Klinger, and Turner, our 4B term was a very active one. We made another first by having an open Hop. On Saturday, April 22, the members of the Class of January 1951, with their escorts, entered the elaborately decorated Grand Ball where Cinderella and Prince Charming presided. Our class collaborated with the Class of June 1951 on an idea which was novel. James M. Barrie's "Admirable Crichton" was presented on May 11, 12, and 13. On June 2, Jerry Sokol officially received the Torch from the president of the Class of June 1950. With Sokol, Shalit, Klinger, and Turner at the helm, we started on our final term in Weequahic High School. Again we were history makers. The final social event where the class was joyously united was held at Frank Dailey's Terrace Room on December 29. Our passing of the Torch on January 5 was a very solemn occasion. January 24, 1951, the solemn hush, the caps and gowns of blue, receiving our diplomas, our mingled emotions; these are what we remember about graduation night, and the close of our high school careers.

Class Will

We, the Graduating Class of January 1951, being of sound mind and healthy body, do hereby submit this, our last will and testament. We bequeath the following:

To the Class of June 1951, a brightly burning torch, the tradition of which we know they will carry on.

To the Juniors, the prospect of being Seniors and the visions of diplomas they will ultimately receive.

To the Sophomores, the good intentions which we had when we were Sophomores.

To the Freshmen, the bright prospect of some day coming to the main building on Chancellor Avenue.

To the Homeroom Teachers, the hope of some day having a quiet homeroom.

To Mr. LaPenna, our grade adviser, a million dollars' worth of gratitude.

To Mrs. Bernstein, Mrs. Saltman, and Mr. Gross, many thanks for their patience and diligence in helping us compile our yearbook.

To Mr. Green, our appreciation for a job well done.

To Mr. Herzberg, our appreciation of his patience and the advice he has given us.
